

OBLITERACERS GOES LIVE ON STEAM TODAY

16-Player Party Racer Available at 10% Discount for the First Two Weeks

FRANKFURT, Germany, February 23, 2016 – Game developer and publisher Deck13 is pleased to announce that PC party racer Obliteracers, by Australian developer Varkian Empire (Space Dust Studios), will be available on STEAM today from 7 p.m. PST. Players will be able to purchase the US$14.99 game at a 10% discount for the first 14 days of sale on STEAM.

Michael Davies (CEO, Varkian Empire) said: „We are very proud to release our first full game on STEAM. We were already humbled by our win of the Indie Showcase Award at the IFEST in Melbourne and are very much looking forward to seeing how the players like the game.“

Jan Klose (CEO, Deck13) added: „The partnership with Varkian Empire was lots of fun for us. Obliteracers is a great game which is best played with a lot of friends. That’s where it shows its full party game potential!“

Intergalactic party racing mayhem! Obliteracers is an award-winning same-screen party racer for up to 16 players. Race brutally cute aliens on exotic planets, using weapon power-ups and physics-based vehicles to annihilate your competition in different game modes. Connect spare gamepads, laptops and smart devices as extra controllers. Stragglers will be eliminated... only one alien shall prevail!

About Deck13:

Deck13 Interactive is one of Germany's leading Next-Gen developers with studios based in Frankfurt and Hamburg. Deck13's award winning portfolio contains top-titles like Next-Gen multiplatform hit Lords of the Fallen, which sold more than 1 million units. The team consisting of 50 people is currently developing the AAA-multiplatform title The Surge which utilizes their home made FLEDGE-Engine. The studio's newly founded unit „Deck13 Games“ selected games from Indie Devs and supports their marketing efforts.

About Varkian Empire:

Varkian Empire is an independent video game developer located in Melbourne, Australia. The team consists of veteran developers that have contributed to franchises such as Battlefield, Need for Speed, Tomb Raider, Dead Space, Burnout and Silent Hill. Obliteracers marks the team's first own release for PC (23.02.2016) via STEAM. Versions for Xbox One and PS4 are to follow in Q2 2016.
